Charlatans Report Equipment Missing

Several pieces of miscellaneous electrical equipment are missing from the Charlatans' prop room in the basement of the infirmary, Gabriel Gregoratos, Assistant Business Manager of the group, announced this week.

The list of missing equipment included two flood-lights, two small spot lights complete with lenses and bulbs, one 4½ inch lens, and a number of sockets, plugs, screwhooks, and turnbuckles.

According to Gregoratos, the equipment was in the basement on Saturday, but was missing Monday afternoon. If the spot lights and other items are returned by next Wednesday, no questions will be asked, but if not, the matter will be turned over to Dean Tolles, Gregoratos stated.

The chapel preacher this Sunday evening will be Dean Robert R. Wicks. Any students wishing appointments with Dean Wicks during the week should make appointments at the switchboard in Buttrick Hall. A special collection will be taken at Sunday's service for the benefit of the work of Horace G. Underwood '39, a Presbyterian missionary at Seoul, Korea. Mr. Underwood is a professor of English at Chosen Christian University.

Agar To Speak Next In College Lecture Series

On Thursday, February 9, Herbert Agar, noted political and historical commentator, author, editor, diplomat and authority on international affairs, will deliver the first College-sponsored lecture of the second semester.

A recipient of the 1934 Pulitzer Prize for his book, "The People's Choice," a survey of American presidents, Agar is also the author of two other books, and is now at work on a fourth.

From 1928 until 1934, the lecturer was literary editor of the English Review and correspondent for the Louisville Courier-Journal, The New York Times, and several other American newspapers. In 1940 he became editor of the Louisville paper, and became renowned for his potent editorials advocating American intervention in the World War.

He was the founder of and President of "Fight for Freedom," a nationwide organization devoted to urging a more active participation of America in the war, and was also one of the founders and guides of Freedom House.

After serving as a lieutenant commander in the Navy for several years, he became a special assistant to Ambassador John G. Winant in England. He also served as assistant to Ambassador Harriman.

He resigned his post as Counselor for Public Affairs and chief of the United States Information Service in London in 1946 to commence work on a new book which will trace the development of the Federal Government from Revolutionary days.

Mr. Agar did his undergraduate work at Columbia, and received his Master's and Doctor's degrees from Princeton, in 1920 and 1922 respectively.

Messrs. Healy, Ramirez Leave Faculty After First Semester

Dr. J. C. Brown, Mr. Wendell Brown Named For Political Science; Schwartz For Spanish

President Robert W. McEwen announced "with regret" early this week that Allan Healy, Assistant Professor of Political Science, and Luis Ramirez, Instructor in Spanish, had resigned from the faculty.

It was announced on Tuesday by the President that Dr. John C. Brown would assume Mr. Healy's classes in Comparative Government, American Government, and Local Administration; and that Mr. Kessel Schwartz would replace Mr. Ramirez in the Spanish Department.

Dr. Brown was graduated from the University of Florida and received his Ph. D. from the University of Chicago last June. He did his graduate work under a fellowship from the Social Science Research Council. Dr. Brown's special field of interest is political parties and public opinion. Mr. Schwartz received his A. B. and M. A. from the University of Missouri and has spent the past year touring Latin-America.

Mr. Healy's class in Constitutional Law will be assumed by Wendell Brown, a former Utica lawyer who is now studying for his Doctorate in Social Science at the Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs of Syracuse University. Mr. Brown attended Colgate for two years and received his A. B. and L. L. B. degrees from Cornell. After serving in the Army for four years, he joined the firm of Brown, Hubbard, Felt, and Fuller in Utica.

Mr. Ramirez resigned to take a position with the Colombian government, while Mr. Healy's resignation was for "personal reasons."

D.U.'s Confer Here Feb. 10th

The local chapter of Delta Upsilon will play host to representatives from eight eastern colleges February 10, 11, and 12, for the annual conference of the fraternity's second province. Delegates are expected from Union, Rochester, Syracuse, Cornell, Colgate, McGill, Toronto, and Western Ontario.

Feature of the weekend's activities will be three two hour conference sessions on Friday afternoon and Saturday morning and afternoon. Delegates will present prepared reports and such matters as scholarship, rushing and finance will be considered. Phil Evans, recently retired president of the Hamilton chapter, will preside at the conference sessions.

College Receives Hamilton Portraits

Two portraits, one of Alexander Hamilton and the other of his wife, have been received by the College, Carl B. Wenigmann of the Board of Trustees recently announced in a letter to President McEwen. In addition, a letter in Hamilton's handwriting is mounted in the same frame with the portraits.

The two portraits and the letter, the gift of Mrs. John W. Donaldson, will come up for official action by the Board of Trustees at their next meeting. The portrait of Mrs. Hamilton is a steel engraving taken from original painting done in 1781 by R. Earl, while, the portrait of Hamilton is by F. T. Stuart.

Library Staff Will Feature 'Life' Displays

Two exhibitions prepared by the editors of Life will be shown in the library beginning February seventh, and continuing through the eleventh. The two, "The Age of Enlightenment" and "1848," are based on articles which have appeared in Life.

"1848," an exhibition of 24 large panels, depicts that crucial year in the 19th Century which some historians have called "the turning point of history at which history didn't turn." This exhibition is divided into five sections: England and Industrialism; France; Austria; Italy; and Germany. The title panel is a reproduction in color of Delacroix's "Liberty Leading the People," and is followed by a portrait of Prince Metternich and a painting of the diplomats at the Congress of Vienna.

"The Age of Enlightenment" is organized under three main sections: Versailles, Paris, and the Age of Crisis. The first depicts the corrupt Bourbon glory; the second, the bourgeois society of Voltaire, Rousseau, Diderot, Montesquieu and Lavoisier; and the third shows the impact upon the people of the conflict between the ideas of the Enlightenment and the old regime.

Among the artist and architects included are Boucher, Fragonnard, Nattier, Rigaud, Watteau, David, Drouais, Debucourt, Greuze, Ledoux, Delamaire and Soufflot. Both exhibitions also include engravings, prints, drawings, woodcuts, lithographs, cartoons, maps, and miscellaneous photographs.

McEwen To Speak Saturday At SLU

President Robert W. McEwen will deliver the principal address at the graduation exercises of St. Lawrence University tomorrow. He will be awarded the honorary degree of Doctor of Humanities (L. H. D.).

AX To Occupy Dale's House In September

Local Fraternity To Start Pledging Now, Says Milford

With the signing of a two-year renewable lease for the 12-room house occupied at the present time by Professor Nelson C. Dale, the future of the local Alpha Chi fraternity took on a brighter cast this week.

The local group, which has been negotiating for the house since early December, will occupy their new home next September. President Al Milford stated that he expects that twelve men will be housed in the building, which is at 302 College Hill Road.

It is hoped that the long-awaited housing of Alpha Chi will have a salutary effect on their petition for admission into the national fraternity of Delta Phi. The petition, which has been tabled by the national convention twice since its submission in the Spring of 1948, comes up for final consideration at the convention to be held at the University of Illinois in May.

With the obtaining of the house, the Alpha Chi's plan to embark on a pledging program during this semester. This is in accordance with their plans to participate more fully in college activities. Last fall, when it became apparent that they would not have a house for at least a year, the members decided that it would be unwise to pledge, with the future so much in doubt. They did, however, retain their seat on the Interfraternity Council, and participate in activities as their limited membership allowed.

The fraternity will continue to use the Fancher Guest House for meetings and social affairs throughout this semester, Milford stated.

Alpha Chi was organized as a local fraternity in the fall of 1947 with the approval of the administration, in accordance with the policy of having as many boys in fraternities as possible. Since that time, it has been a full-fledged participant in the fraternity program, except for the "inactive" period this fall.

Basketball Situation

Our sport columns this week carry a signed article bringing criticism against a member of Hamilton's coaching staff. The editors have investigated the situation and have concluded that there are grounds for the columnist's complaints. The general situation in basketball seems to be that questionable coaching policies have brought on a negative attitude on the part of many players, and that both of these factors have made for a very poor showing for Hamilton so far this season.

We wish to make it clear that, in printing such a column, we are not campaigning for the dismissal of the coach. A Hamilton coach is hired for a multitude of jobs and a disappointing performance in any one of these jobs is not necessarily grounds for condemning the whole worth of the man.

We are concerned about the whole affair because we feel that, if Hamilton is going to spend time, effort, and funds on any project, she should do it as well as she possibly can with the material at hand. Frankly, we feel sure that the coach and the players are capable of better things. We are giving voice to student criticism in this case in the hope that it may result in a sensible revaluation of the whole situation by both the players and the coach, and that greater credit for Hamilton will follow.

Gregoratos Writes About Scheduling

I would like to mention a few things about the situation of the College Calendar. First of all there is no doubt that for a small college the Hamilton Student Body carries an excessive number of artxa-curricular activities; direct results of this heavy burden are the numerous conflicts which occur every week in the calendar. . .

We all know that Mr. Johnson and the Student Council are doing their best to avoid conflicts by pre-arranging the calendar. Nevertheless there are always some activities which aren't scheduled until the last day or so. The results: Special notices have to be sent out, the originally scheduled events suffer, and general confusion follows. To avoid this confusion a rule that all activities should be entered in the calendar at least two weeks in advance, might prove helpful. Furthermore if some authority—presumably the Student Council— would establish an order of priority among the different activities the conflicts would be greatly diminished. The last thing to be kept in mind is that we can avoid much confusion simply by cooperating more. Cooperation among the different active organizations of the campus should be the first step in straightening out all difficulties.

end to climax the traditional "Hell Week" activities. The eleventh fraternity, Alpha Chi, did not participate in the fall rushing period since they didn't have a house, a difficulty which was resolved only this week.

Many alumni are expected to take part in the formal ceremonies which are scheduled for today and tomorrow. "Hell Week" activities have kept freshmen busy during the past week, with pledges industriously whittling at paddles, gathering vital statistics from Syracuse sororities, and conducting night-long campaigns for the collection of rare and useful commodities for the benefit of unsympathetic upperclassmen.

Blast Rocks Dorm During Exam Week

A blast, described by one resident as, "rocking the entire building", shook North dormitory at 2 A. M. on January 18 during examination week.

Caused by the explosion of one of the dormitory's hot water tanks, the accident blew out the door, shattered the window of the building's boiler room, and flooded the room. Occupants of the dormitory were left without hot water for almost two days. There were no injuries to any students.

Blue Out For Fifth Ice Win Tomorrow

Rugged Foes Face High-Flying '6'; Stalled Quintet Faces Union

By Phil Robinson

As the first half of Hamilton's winter sports schedule concludes during the next week, attention of the athletic minded on the Hill will be focused twice on the Sage Rink and once in the Alumni Gym.

On the ice Victoria and Clarkson will cross sticks with the Blue on Saturday and Wednesday nights respectively, while Saturday's matinee affair on the basketball court will feature the Dutchmen of Union as visitors.

Coach Greg Batt's amazing hockey squad will have a tough assignment cut out for themselves when they clash with Victoria's crack sextet Saturday at 8 P. M. Hamilton will enter the game with sprits sharpened to a razor's edge by the most successful season, thus far, of any Hill varsity sport in 1949-50. Playing inspired hockey all year, the team has bowled over Middlebury twice, and beaten R. P. I. and Alumni, while losing a heartbreaker to Colgate, 5-4.

Satan and his promiscuous crowd erected Pandaemonium, the high capital of Hell, in two hours. It has taken John Panatier two years, but the pandemonium he has created in the gymnasium with his two hands and "incessant toil" far surpasses anything the infamous horde could dream up.

Judging from the defense he uses, Hamilton's basketball coach must have spent a good deal of his life in the wide open spaces of the prairie. The zone is very seedy when it is used on a court as large as ours against a team possessing one or two trigger-happy boys who shoot accurately from the outside.

Harry Babcock

For the past two years Hamilton's new gym has provided an excellent proving ground for visiting team's radar sets. The zone defense is not a piece of outmoded Victorian furniture. During the course of a game, a dash of zone sprinkled lightly in place of the man to man defense often times confuses an opponent, but it must be used in the right place at the right time, and not all the time.

Coach Panatier laboured to install the pass and screen offensive in the course of a few leisurely afternoons and the team used this new system rather leisurely in some of its games; so this season the fast break has been Hamilton's devastating offensive weapon. The fast break can be a headache to the enemy if they aren't set for it; it can also act as a tonic if they are prepared to stall it. Coach Panatier's boys should be geared to score by some other device when the fast break is cut off from its line of communication. Up to the present time, as soon as the Hamilton team's fast break is picked off by enemy sniper fire, the club members play a game called "Helter-Skelter".

Coach Panatier has developed the strange habit of grabbing some of the J. V. players as soon as their game is completed and inserting them in a varsity game ahead of a few of the regulars. Such a policy certainly doesn't help team spirit. If a member of the J. V. is worthy of playing for the varsity, the logical procedure would be to let the boy practice with the varsity before he plays in a game. By indulging in this annoying habit, Coach Panatier gives the impression that he has no confidence in his team or his ability to utilize the talent he has found in the gym.

Hamilton has never fired coaches because the athletic enterprises they built were not undefeated, and we hope it will never happen. However, at the moment Mr. Panatier's basketball corporation is bankrupt. With half the season remaining it is hoped that his stock will soon begin to pay dividends.

Blue Matches Town Comets Till 3rd Period

Middlebury Crushed Twice by Hill Icemen

By Jim Nickel

Hamilton's high spirited hockey team kept a hard fought deadlock with the Clinton Hockey Club for two blazing periods before the endurance and depth of the Comets paid off in a 9-4 win at the Sage Rink Wednesday night. The Continentals thus roar into the second semester with an even split in exhibition games, having downed the Alumni 5-1, and a record of three wins and one loss in collegiate hockey.

Clinton, in racking up its 16th win, saw its 3-1 first period lead dissolve in the second frame on goals by Jim Scala and Tim Colt, as the Blue defense playing all-out hockey, shut the talented Clinton wings out, in as ferocious a period as has been seen here all season. The Comets took full advantage of the exhaustion of the Continentals in the last frame and poured in six shots while Hamilton, with Carl Knapp soloing at 16:57, could muster only one.

Knapp, with two goals and an assist for the evening, led the Blue attack. He tied the score 1-1, at 6:45 of the first by smashing in a rebound, passed to Tim Colt at 17:26 for the tying goal in the second, and soloed in the third. Jim Scala banged one into the left corner of the nets at 00:58 of the second before Colt's late period tally.

Fred Kroll pulled the hat trick for Clinton with three

SPORT NOTES

Hamilton's hockey team will meet Colgate February 11 in the Sage Building it was announced last week by Athletic Director Mox A. Weber. The game replaces one scheduled with Cornell which has cancelled its hockey schedule for the second year in a row. Early in the season the Red Raiders, who lost their entire second line through January graduation, defeated the Blue, 5-4, in a contest which saw Hamilton in front until the last five minutes. Colgate has two other branches of Toronto University, has compiled a 4 win, 1 loss, 2 tie record in stiff Canadian competition. Incidentally, it was the Toronto Intermediates, another branch of Toronoto U., which handed the Clinton Comets one of their few losses, this season. The Canadians are captained by John Rhame and are reputed to be even better than last year's squad which crushed the Continentals, 9-2, before a Winter Carnival crowd. Victoria comes to the Hill after a game with the the Comets Friday night.

Hamilton will be strengthened for the game by the addition of Paul Mosier who will take over a wing on the second line, and Al Vollmer, who will center the third line. Neither has seen action this year in a regularly scheduled game. The starting lineup remains the same as it was Wednesday night: Carl Knapp, center; Jim Scala and Sam Reeder, wings; Dave Nadal and Tim Colt, defense; and Jerry Steiner, goal.

Rivalry Renewed

Wednesday evening Hamilton's sextet will face Clarkson Tech. Rivalry between the two schools on ice dates back to 1921. Last year the Engineers edged the Blue, 4-3, in an overtime thriller, but the Continentals hold a 6-4 edge in victories across the years. Although only three lettermen from last season's sextet will return to the Sage Rink, Clarkson has a large group of excellent Sophomores whom Coach Harrison has molded into a winning team. The Gold and Green holds a 5-0 win over Army and a 7-6 triumph over Dartmouth this season. Clinton will take on the Engineers Wednesday night.

On the basketball front, Union invades the Hill at 4 p. m. Saturday for the first of two annual clashes on the hardwood between the traditional rivals. Union will enter the game having won three and lost three. The Dutchmen have beaten two of the "Little Three," Williams and Wesleyan, as well as Hobart. Middlebury, Brooklyn Poly, and Rochester hold wins over the Garnet. Hamilton also beat Hobart and lost to Brooklyn Poly by approximately the same scores as the Schenectady cagers.

Union has nine lettermen returning from last year's squad but lacks height under the backboards.

Coach John Panatier will probably start Jim Robinson and Tom Gregory at forwards, Ted Mullett and Don Robertson at guards and Bill Tank, the team's leading scorer with an average of 13.3 points per game, at center.

Forest Evashevski, Hamilton's head football coach in 1941 and now an assistant at Michigan State, has reportedly been named head grid mentor at Washington State College, the Associated Press stated early in the week. Evashevski was the Hill coach in the year of the famed Milt Janone's greatest achievements on the gridiron and it was his team that was called "The Big Blue Buzz-Saw."

The fencing room has been turned into a paddle tennis and badmaitnton court—or at least until 4:30 every afternoon, the athletic department reported this week. A ping-pong table has been installed in Home Team Room A.

goals, whil Art Simmons netted one goal and two assists, Bud Crutchley, Dick Dockrell, and Lew Burgwin each bagged one goal and one assist, Lee Nickerson racked up one score and two assists, Harmon Tarolli got one goal, and Tom Dockerell netted one assist. It was Kroll who broke the 3-3 tie at 2:55 of the final period by smashing in a loose puck, and who iced the game at 3:17 by ramming home a rebound.

On the road for the first time, Hamilton handed the rough and ready Panthers of Middlebury a 2-1 licking last Saturday night, after beating them 5-3 in Clinton on January 14. With the Blue one man down, midway in the second period, Carl Knapp broke up a power play and soloed home with the first goal. Early in the last frame, Knapp again backhanded a pass from Sam Reeder to register a 2-0 count. Middlebury chalked up its lone point on a disputed goal with only eight minutes remaining.

Two weeks ago, on January 21st in an exhibition match, the Blue shirts sparred with a pickup Alumni team that proved hard to beat, especially with Roy Lutz '42 in the cage. Sam Reeder and Charlie Beeching each bagged two goals.
